$10,000 OR HIS LIFE

Wealthy Man and Sister Threatened With Death.

"THE STRONG FORTY-FIVE."

Member of an Organization Bearing Above Title Sends Lancaster, Pa., Man a Letter Demanding Sum of Money.

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 3.—"Surrender $10,000, or be murdered along with your sister," was the substance of a letter received by Charles B. Grubb, one of Lancaster's wealthiest men.

It was first thought to be a joke, and no attention was paid to it until Saturday, when it was sent to Postmaster Miller. He at once expressed the belief that he knew the writing and the police are now hunting for the writer suspected as they regard the threat as serious.

The writer said that he had been chosen by lot as a member of an organization "the strong forty-two," to secure from Grubb $10,000, or to lose his life and that of his sister, Miss Daisy B. Grubb, of Philadelphia. It was directed that the money be placed beneath a water trough on West Orange street beyond the quarry railroad by 9 o'clock Wednesday night. The letter was at first regarded as a joke as the point indicated was not watched to see if any person went after the money deposited.

DUAL DEATH OF BROTHERS.

One Falls Lifeless Beside the Corpse of the Other.

Americus, Ga., Aug. 3.—The death of Arnold Godwin, and his brother, Bramwell Godwin, occurring simultaneously Thursday morning, was a most remarkable occurrence and has shocked Americus. Both were prominent and prosperous planters residing upon adjoining plantations near Americus.

Arnold Godwin returned Wednesday from New York in excellent health, greatly having enjoyed three weeks there. Thursday upon rising from his bed he fell upon the floor dead from heart failure. Telephone messages summoned his brother, Bramwell Godwin, a mile distant. He hurried to the scene, and upon beholding the corpse of his brother, fell dead beside it.

It is reported that when Bramwell Godwin was told of his brother's death he remarked to his informer that they would be buried together.

The Godwins were among the most influential citizens of Sumter county, and their dual death from heart trouble has profoundly shocked the city.

CAUCUS NAMES JOHNSTON.

Nominated for Both Short and Long Terms.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 3.—For the second time this session the legislature nominated for election to the United States senate a man to succeed a dead senator, that honor falling to Joseph F. Johnston, who will serve for the long and short terms of Senator Pettus, covering the time to 1913.

Although the nomination was by democratic caucus it amounts to election as there are only two other than democrats in the entire assembly.

Gun Against Mowing Blade.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Aug. 3.—Recalling an old quarrel, Ephriam Alsbrooke attacked James Dunning with a mowing blade. Dunning, who was hunting from hunting, fired two charges of squirrel shot into Alsbrooke's head, killing him instantly. Both are prominent planters. Dunning surrendered.

Five Persons Drowned.

Dubuque, Iowa, Aug. 3.—Five persons were drowned Thursday night by the capsizing of a launch in the Mississippi river, near this city. The victims are William H. Powell, his son, Hallie, Mrs. J. F. Powell and baby. The party had been out on a pleasure trip.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

From Sunday's Daily Sun.

Dr. H. L. Montgomery and family of Micanopy left Friday for Daytona Beach, where they will spend the next few days recuperating. They have many friends congregated at the beach who will be glad of their association during their sojourn there.

Judge Syd L. Carter has returned from Bronson, where he went to represent the defendants in the Lowman case. Judge Carter will spend today with his family, returning to Tallahassee tomorrow, where he is engaged as a member of the investigation committee of the I. I. fund.

Hon. J. M. Ivy of Branford was in the city with his family yesterday. Judge Ivey has been in ill health for the past few weeks, and has been to Cedar Key, where he went to recuperate. He is greatly improved, which will be gratifying information to his numerous friends in his section and the north end of the county.

G. Towney Kennard of Newberry was in the city yesterday. Mr. Kennard was for many years a resident of Gainesville, but decided to make his headquarters in Newberry about a year ago. He has recently purchased the Swindell interests in the Smith & Swindell stables, and the new firm proposes to push the business for all it is worth. Mr. Kennard is a hustler, and there is no doubt that he will make the livery business a success.

SHOT AT NEGRO.

Allen Haile Would Not Tolerate a Colored Man's Foolishness.

Because he would not tolerate a negro's foolishness Allen Haile, a well-known young man of this city, shot at and may have struck Will Taylor, an employ of Dell & Haile, naval stores operators, at a late hour Saturday afternoon.

From what could be learned it appears that Taylor had gone to work for Dell & Haile, who own a place at Paradise, on Monday, and left his work Thursday, having put in only four days' time. He came to the city Saturday, looked up Mr. Haile at his home, and with a threat said he would "have his money or go to h——." He made several threats to Mr. Haile, which finally resulted in an exhaust of patience and reason, when Mr. Haile went into the house, secured a gun, and fired.

It is not known whether any shots took effect, as the negro made haste from the scene of the shooting, and has not been heard from since.

A PLEASANT OCCASION.

Miss Maude Tenant Entertains in Honor of Visiting Friend.

Miss Maud Tenant of South Gainesville has as her guest Miss Florence Cork, a popular young lady of Live Oak, who has been here for the past few days, and who has made many friends. On Thursday evening Miss Tenant entertained in honor of her guest. There was a large crowd present, and the evening passed in a manner most enjoyable to the occasion. There was plenty of refreshments, a number of parlor games, and altogether the affair was one which was greatly enjoyed, and one which will be remembered for a long time.

TWO MONTHS IN GANG.

Frank Burger Enticed Labor and Must Pay the Consequences.

Because Frank Burger, colored, insisted on enticing labor from one camp to another on the alleged commission basis, thereby making a "string" on commissions, he was arraigned in Justice Henderson's court at Newberry on Friday, and in default of a fine of $100 and costs was committed to jail to serve out a sentence of sixty days.

Burger was brought to this city and turned over to the sheriff and sent to the mines at Lennon, Deputy Sheriff I. T. Walker having him in charge.

AN ATROCIOUS CRIME

Killing of Little Katie Tietschler Shocked New York.

CHOKED WITH HAIR RIBBON

Seeming Inability of the Police to Check Crime Wave Creates a State of Fear Among Hundreds of Families.

New York, Aug. 3.—The murder of little 8-year-old Katie Tietschler, who was choked to death with her own hair ribbon and her body mutilated by the slayer's lust, in a dark cellar on First avenue, has called forth every effort of the whole police department to find the fiend who has been satiating his murderous appetite in the strangling and hacking to bits of his victims.

Unlike the Whitechapel Jack the Ripper, the New York slayer picks out his victims among children as well as women.

The killing of the Tieschler child is the most atrocious in the city criminal history.

Two men and a woman are being held in custody on suspicion that they might know something of the girl's death, the woman, Anna Messner, was arraigned in the Night court and held without bail for the coroner. She was taken to the police headquarters and was closely questioned by detectives. She admitted that she knew Getiano Rippolone, the cobbler, and his employe, Guiseppe Bonfanta, both of whom are being detained by the police. She said she had been living for several days at the house where the child's body was found. Before that she resided with the Tietschler family, but Karl Tietschler recently ordered her to leave the house.

The seeming inability of the police to check the wave of crime which is spending itself unchecked on the killing and spoliation of women and children has created a state of fear among hundreds of families on the East Side where the Tietschler crime was committed, and in other parts of the city also.

Police Commissioner Bingham says that the present police force is inadequate to properly police the city, but that everything possible is being done by the force under his direction.

Dogs Put on Trail.

Athens, Ga., Aug. 3.—Two negroes were discovered in a room of two young ladies attending the summer school in Candler hall early Thursday morning. The room was on the first floor of the building. At 4 o'clock one of the ladies was awakened by seeing a negro at the foot of her bed. She screamed, as did the other lady, when one negro said: "This is no place for us," and ran out of the building. In a few minutes several men with guns and pistols were on the scene, but no trace of the negroes could be found. The county dogs were obtained, but could not get a trail.

Fate of Famous Engine.

Atlanta, Aug. 3.—The Texas, that locomotive which finally overhauled the General in its mad flight with the Andrew raiders in '62—one of the most dramatic and sensationally thrilling events of the war between the states—is now in the Western and Atlantic yards at the foot of Alabama street, awaiting a visit and bid from Atlanta junk men, who will beat it into pieces and get for it the ruling price for old scrap iron. The General, the engine stolen by the raiders and which the Texas overhauled, stands upon a pedestal in the Union depot at Chattanooga.

Ticket Agent Suicides.

Steubenville, O., Aug. 3.—Edward L. Perwar, city ticket agent for the Cleveland and Pittsburg road for 20 years, committed suicide Thursday night. Before shooting himself Perwar severed an artery under the left knee. Perwar had a carbuncle on the neck for months. Suffering from it caused him to lose hope of recovery.

WINDSOR ITEMS.

Some Good Suggestions Regarding Construction of Hard Roads.

Windsor, Aug. 3.—The people of this community have ceased to complain of dry weather.

Crops will be good in the Windsor neighborhood this year. Cotton is looking very fine and corn will be a fair crop.

Mrs. E. T. Finklea, accompanied by her father, Mr. H. Mann, have gone to Chicago to spend the summer.

Miss Maggie Torode is spending the summer with her sister in Lynchburg, Va.

Real estate seems to be active in Windsor.

H. Spivey has recently bought all the land here belonging to the late E. T. Finklea of Rochelle.

O. R. Green has lately installed a shingle mill which promises to do a good business.

The people of Windsor are very much pleased with the excellent work the county is doing on the road east from Gainesville, and they are united in desiring the good work to continue.

It seems to be the general impression that our County Commissioners are going to order the work discontinued on the road to Prairie Creek at the board meeting this month. We earnestly hope our honorable board of commissioners will reconsider this intention and continue the work east until the road is completed as far as Prairie Creek bridge, at the very least. There are many reasons why the work should progress—among them we may mention the following:

1st. As the county is going to put a new steel bridge over Prairie Creek it would seem fitting to complete the road to the new bridge.

2nd. The teams and men are now on this side of the work, and why not stay just a little longer and finish it to a definite point?

3rd. The clay pits are now all open, the field in which one of them is located is fenced off and the opening made, so why not make use of it while the material is given to the county gratis, and all the work of getting ready is done?

4th. It has been a long time since any construction work has been done on this side of the county, and we naturally feel as though we would like the county to spend an equal share of time on this side of Gainesville.

5th. This road, leading east from Gainesville, is one of the most important in the county in point of the number of people using it. All work done on this road is a help to people living in Rochelle, Hawthorn, Campville, Rex, Melrose and Orange Heights, inasmuch as this is the most direct route for people from these places to Gainesville. In addition to these there is a large number of farmers who live near these places who will be benefited.

6th. All the places are a long drive from Gainesville, and so greatly need all the good road they can get.

Now that the people all over the county are in favor of hard roads why would it not be a good plan for our Board of County Commissioners to secure at least four teams and have four crews of men, and then let the work proceed simultaneously, north, east, south and west? Thus all sections of the county would be securing good roads at the same time and no section would feel that they were neglected. Would it not be also much more economical, as then all the time and expense of moving from one side of the county to the other would be obviated, and each camp would acquire a kind of momentum by becoming perfectly familiar with the class of work they had to do, and thus build the road more quickly and at less expense to the county, and probably also of a better quality, with more satisfaction to the public?

Butler Saved Fortune.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Robert Stubbs, for years butler in the home of Levi P. Morton, has retired from his position with a fortune of $100,000, and has returned to England, his native country, to live.

TO MAKE SPEED TEST

Unusual Interest in Trial Trip of Battleship Connecticut.

TAKES PLACE ON AUGUST 8

This is the First Battleship of the First Class Built by the Government Instead of Contractors, Hence the Interest.

New York, Aug. 3.—Unusual interest attaches to the trial of the battleship Connecticut, which will be made over the Rockland, Me., course on August 8. Rear Admiral R. D. Evans will be aboard the Connecticut during her speed test.

The fact that the Connecticut is the first battleship of the first class built by the government instead of contractors, explains the unusual public interest in her.

Naval men expect to obtain valuable information from a comparison of the Connecticut with the Louisiana.

The boats of both ships will start at the same time, the former from the government navy yard, and the latter by contract.

It is believed the Connecticut will demonstrate the government's ability to produce battleships of the first class that are in all points equal to those built by the contract system.

The battleship Connecticut left the Brooklyn navy yard on Friday for Hampton Roads, where she will take on 1,000 tons of coal and ammunition, and will then go to Rockland for the speed trip.

RICHARDSON WITHDRAWS.

Denver Lawyer Says He Will Not Work with Clarence Darrow.

Denver, Colorado, Aug. 3.—The News says that Attorney E. F. Richardson, of Denver, who was one of W. D. Haywood's counsel in the famous trial at Boise, Idaho, has withdrawn from any further connection with the defense of Moyer, Haywood and others of the Western Federation of Miners in cases now pending before the Idaho courts. He is quoted as saying that he will not work with Clarence Darrow, the Chicago lawyer associated with him in the case as lawyer.

"The whole substance of the matter is that I cannot endorse Darrow's methods," said Richardson. "I do not sanction socialism, at least not when it is coupled with the trying of a legal suit, and especially when such case is a murder case and involves a man's life."

FISH AND HARRIMAN CLASH.

Both Claim They Own More Stock Than Other in Illinois Central.

New York, Aug. 3.—E. H. Harriman and Stuyvesant Fish, whom Mr. Harriman ousted from the presidency of the Illinois Central, differ over the ownership of the stock of the road.

The trouble arose over a statement given out by Mr. Fish, announcing his position at the next annual meeting of the Illinois stockholders, which he said Mr. Harriman could control only 120 shares of Illinois Central stock against 12,488 held by himself. When this statement was shown to Mr. Harriman, he said:

"I have been the largest stockholder in Illinois Central ever since I have been in the company and Mr. Fish knows it."

When Mr. Fish was informed of Mr Harriman's statement, said the figures he had given were taken from the books of the company and were correct.

SENATOR EDMUND WINSTON PETTUS

One of Most Picturesque Figures Who Ever Graced Senate.

ONE OF THE FORTY-NINERS

He Was the Grandson of a Revolutionary Hero—Veteran of Two Wars. Won Title of Brigadier-General in Struggle of Sixties.

(Atlanta Constitution.)

The death of the venerable Senator Pettus of Alabama removes one of the most picturesque figures who has graced the Senate of the United States in recent years.

The grandson of a revolutionary hero; one of the forty-niners who traveled on horseback across the country when the gold fever in California inspired every ambitious young man to seek his fortune in this new El Dorado; a veteran of two wars, who won the title of brigadier-general in the struggle of the sixties, Senator Pettus was a strong, a rugged and an honest man.

He was of the old type of statesmanship, the kind who put honor above any practical consideration, and to whom the call of duty is a trumpet sound.

The country will not soon forget his devotion to principle, his faithfulness, his steadfastness and his loyalty, and his colleagues on the floor of the United States Senate will often miss the rugged yet kindly old man who, in his eighty-sixth year, regularly made his slow and labored way around the room where that august body was pursuing its deliberations. Though bent and feeble, there was still the suggestion of the iron constitution of the pioneer in his movements and his mind was alert and active. The country will recall with a feeling that comes from the heart the honest, beautiful, friendly tribute which this hale and hearty old man a few months ago paid to his dearest colleague on the floor. Though nearly years his senior in point of service, Senator John T. Morgan was three years the junior of Senator Pettus in point of years. The paternal, protecting care of the older man for his fragile and less robust colleague was such as a manly youngster of sixteen would throw around a frail and sickly child of six. Friends of sixty years' standing, neighbors in the same town in Alabama for almost as long, it seems a fitting dispensation of Providence that the voices of these two grand old men, which have so often aroused the closest attention of the highest lawmaking body in the American union, as they voiced the sentiments of their people and their State, should within a few weeks of each other have been hushed in the great silence of eternity.

MARRIED IN GEORGIA.

H. F. Smith and Miss Pinie Horne Unite Fortunes.

When Mr. H. F. Smith went to Metcalf, Ga., several days ago only those in whom he had confided had the remotest idea that he intended to return with a bride. Such was the case, however, and on Sunday, July 28, he was married in the Georgia town to Miss Pinie Horne, one of the most popular and winsome young ladies of that place. The happy couple arrived in Gainesville Tuesday and are making their home with Mrs. Perry at 406 E. Orange street.

Mr. Smith is well and favorably known in Alachua county, especially in the East End, and his numerous friends wish him and his bride unalloyed happiness in their married life.

Arthur Doyle to Become a Benedict.

A. J. Doyle—genial, clever, entertaining Arthur Joseph Doyle—is to become a benedict. On Thursday morning, August 15, he will be united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Miss Mary Norwood of Perry, Ga. If Arthur casts the same rays of sunshine about his home that he has been noted for in the hotel lobbies wherever he registered during the many years he has been on the road, the lot of the future Mrs. Doyle will indeed be a happy one. Probably no traveling man ever had more friends than Arthur Doyle has, and each and every one of them extend him hearty congratulations in advance.

HAGUE NOTES.

H. H. Clarke Celebrates Birthday. Cotton in Good Condition.

Hague, August 1.—Business in the Hague section is considered good for the season.

Messrs. Gracy and Chase will soon begin turning out lumber at their mill. The track is now being laid for the tram-road, and several tenant houses have been erected.

The cotton crop is looking very promising in this section. Fodder-pulling is now the order of the day.

A protracted meeting will begin at Antioch on Saturday and will continue for a week or ten days. Everybody is invited.

The union meeting will be held at Antioch on September 27, 28 and 29. Dinner will be served on the grounds each day. Remember the dates, and everybody come, and bring your baskets.

Mr. Brown has opened up a stock of dry goods and groceries in the Stucky building. We appreciate his presence among us, and hope for him a liberal patronage.

Aaron McKinny, colored, is erecting a building here in which he expects to conduct a restaurant and fish market.

Miss Ethel Rogers of Jacksonville is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Stanley of this place. She will spend the remainder of the summer here, which will be pleasant news to her numerous friends.

H. H. Clarke celebrated his eighteenth birthday July 31st. A sumptuous dinner was served and all enjoyed the occasion immensely. There were present Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Boardman, J. W. Hardee and family, T. A. White and family and Robert and Jeanings Malphurs. Music was furnished by Master Fred Hardee and R. W. Clarke, and the time passed most pleasantly.

The H. E. Clarke estate, situated in the west end of the county, is now estimated to be worth between $8,000 and $10,000 or more. It contains a heavy belt of fine cedar and cypress and there is also considerable pine timber on it. Experts have recently discovered large deposits of phosphate and koalin on the property, which will naturally make the same more valuable. H. E. Clarke homesteaded the land several years ago, lived to prove it up, and then died, leaving it to a widow and two sons. The mother has retained the property since the death of her husband, and says she will retain it until her sons become of age, when she will turn it over to them. The oldest son is now eighteen.

No Bids Accepted.

Col. H. S. Chubb is in receipt of information from the supervising architect at Washington stating that all bids for erecting the Gainesville public building had been rejected, as none of them came within the appropriation. The erection of the building will therefore remain in abeyance until the reassembling of Congress, when a strong effort will be made to secure an increased appropriation.

Children in Pain

Never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial. IT COSTS MONEY TO MAKE THE RACE

For Governor of Florida In a Primary Election.

TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS

Is a Low Estimate of What It Cost Governor Broward to Make His Canvass for the Nomination in 1904.

(Punta Gorda Herald.)

It has been estimated with apparent correctness that Governor Broward's campaign expenses were at least $20,000. He may not have paid that much out of his own pocket, but the cost of his two campaigns to himself and friends could not have been less than the sum named.

The Circular Method.

There are about 70,000 voters in Florida and their political bias is not shown by the registration list. The candidate who wishes to reach by printed circulars all the Democratic voters must mail his circulars to voters of all parties, and the postage thereon will be at least $700. The printing will cost $150. Add another $150 for envelopes, for folding and addressing. Now do this three times, as may be necessary in a campaign lasting ten months, especially for those running in a second primary. Here is a little item of $3,000 and the candidate has not yet traveled five miles, paid a hotel bill or responded to the demand of one of a horde of a hundred or more grafters.

Transportation Expenses.

A thousand-mile railway ticket will take a man from here to Pensacola and back. The candidate who will be elected by virtue of making a thorough campaign will need about eight of these thousand-mile tickets; cost, $200. He will pay out about five times that much for hotel bills for himself and friends, tipping waiters and porters, and he will help build a lot of churches and provide for numerous widows and orphans, as well as impecunious, but deserving and influential voters who need help and in return for the same will carry each and every county in the State.

The newspapers are left out of this list of expenses, but some of them will surely expect as much as a $10 announcement card, and if all of them should get that much apiece, the total would be $1,500.

Oh, it takes a brave man to run in the primaries for Governor of Florida; and when we consider the courage and sacrifices required, we think all the candidates for that high office ought to be elected.

And after a man has won out and got the office, what is there in it for him but worry and vanity and vexation of spirit and abuse from those who ought to stand by him?

Here is one man who wouldn't run for Governor, if he had a million dollars and was sure of election.

Notice.

Take notice that I will on the first Thursday of November, 1907, or as soon thereafter as I may be heard, apply for a pardon for Gus Mashby, who was convicted at the Spring term of the Circuit Court of Alachua county, Fla., in 1905, of murder. Anyone desiring may then be heard on the merits of the application.

SCOUNDREL IS MARRIED MAN

S. E. Shackleford, an Incompetent Linotype Operator, Blasts the Life of His Own Wife and That of a Promising Young Woman of Ocala.

(Ocala Evening Star.)

Miss Margaret Caldwell took a step Tuesday night that has caused her best friends untold anguish and involved her in trouble that it is not likely a lifetime will extricate her from.

The young lady went out visiting with some friends Tuesday evening, and returned about 11 o'clock. She then put some of her clothes in a valise, slipped out and took a hack to the Seaboard station, where she boarded the train for Jacksonville. Her absence was not discovered until 7 o'clock the next morning. The confused condition of her room and the unmussed bed told she had taken flight. Her friends were too grieved and confused at first to know what to do; else, they might have saved her from her own rashness.

The first definite knowledge of her whereabouts was a telegram from Jacksonville this morning, announcing that she and S. E. Shackleford were registered at a hotel in that city under the name of S. S. Eve and wife.

An Unwholesome Scamp.

Of all the scamps that have visited Ocala of late years, Shackleford is probably the most unwholesome. He came here to take the night shift on the Star's linotype about April 1, and he is certainly the worst April fool the office has ever received. He was entirely incompetent, and the only reason why he was allowed to stay was that we [illegible] entirely [illegible] work for one [illegible] and [illegible] couldn't get another.

Shackleford had a wife in Tampa—formerly Miss Elinor Richardson, who passed her childhood near Ocala before going with her parents to the Gulf City. Shackleford left her without any valid reason for doing so. Coming here he began paying assiduous attention to Miss Caldwell, passing himself off as a single man. She became infatuated with him—how deeply her friends never dreamed, or they might have saved her. Although an incompetent workman, he thought to shine in society, particularly church society, and so imposed on the good people of the Methodist church that they gave him the hand of fellowship and admitted him to an honored place in their choir.

In the meantime Shackleford's wife, in Tampa, was on the verge of confinement, and for her sake her mother and sister besought him to visit her, if only a day or two, for badly as he had treated her, woman-like, she loved him still. To all these appeals he displayed callous indifference, or replied in letters couched in words cruel to a sick woman were bitterly cruel.

Wife's Patience Exhausted.

The long-suffering wife's patience gave way and about June 1 she came to Ocala and had Shackleford arrested. Everyone was so disgusted with his conduct that he could obtain no bail, so he went to jail and would have received a sentence at hard labor had not his wife relented. On his signing papers, binding himself to pay alimony, they allowed him to be released. His wife and mother-in-law were very kind to him on his promise to do better. They paid his debts in town, which were considerable, paid his board two weeks ahead at the Seawood and then returned to Tampa.

Although he had no employment,

Shackleford hung around Ocala for several weeks. It now seems that he was in communication with Miss Caldwell. Her friends, of course, supposed that on finding him out she had let him drop, but they were sadly mistaken. He finally went to Jacksonville to work on The Times-Union, but at least once since then he has returned to try and obtain an interview with Miss Caldwell.

Two weeks ago last Sunday, when Shackleford was supposed to be in Jacksonville, he met Miss Caldwell and another young lady at Silver Springs. A brother of Miss Caldwell was also with the girls when Shackleford met them.

Life fair with promise was opening before this young girl, and why she blasted her future for the sake of such a contemptible specimen of humanity is one of the things past finding out. She deserves pity rather than blame, but the only excuse for Shackleford is the fact that to those who know him best his mind has seemed as unsound as his conscience.

As soon as information was received here of his whereabouts Judge Bell issued a warrant for his arrest, sworn out by the girl's foster father, and Sheriff Gordon forwarded the warrant to the sheriff in Jacksonville, telegraphing him to arrest Shackleford at once and hold him pending the arrival of the warrant and an officer later.

The penalty in Florida for this kind of an offense—it is really several offenses, as the man is married—is very severe, and this fastidious villain will get a plenty before the courts of this State are through with him, and his fascinating youth is likely to vanish before he is again turned loose on the much abused public.

MASQUERADED AS MAN.

Woman Worked with Husband for Three Years in a Mine.

Washington, Pa., Aug. 2.—Masquerading as a man and working side by side with her husband in various Washington county coal mines "Joe" Poyle was discovered to be Mrs. Susie Poyle when she was taken to a hospital suffering from injuries sustained in a mine accident at Cecil.

The woman, according to her husband, Steve Poyle, had been working with him three years. Her coarse voice and close cropped hair deceived all as to her sex, while her strength equaled that of her male Slav companions. The woman's injuries were discovered to be not serious and her husband was lodged in the county jail here, charged with violating the law in employing female held in a mine.

The woman acted as Poyle's "helper," and was paid by Poyle.

DRANK WHISKEY; DIED FROM EFFECTS

Untimely Ending of Two Extension Laborers on F. E. C. Ry.

LIQUOR BOUGHT FROM RUM BOAT

Men Who Sold the Liquor Being Held in Custody at Key West. Death Pronounced to Have Been Caused by Acute Alcoholism.

(Miami Metropolis, July 30.)

The remains of Thomas Wilson and Francis Reilley, extension laborers, lie in the undertaking rooms of H. M. King, this city, while four men, names unknown, are held as prisoners in Key West, awaiting a determination of the cause of their death.

According to information obtainable the four prisoners, who operate a boat plying about the different extension camps selling liquor to the workmen, stopped at Long Key yesterday, disposing of a part of their stock in trade to Wilson, Reilley and others. The men drank freely, but not excessively, of the liquor, and a short time afterwards Wilson and Reilley became unconscious, both dying about four hours after they had first drunk of the liquor.

Death was easy, the men expiring as if going to sleep. Another man named Kelly, who also drank freely of the liquor, showed effects from the same and at midnight last night was acting in a demented condition.

Believing that the liquor had caused the death of the two men, the engineers in charge at Long Key arrested the four men operating the boat from which it had been bought, and sent them to Key West, where they will be held until the exact cause of death has been determined.

At the same time the tug Sybil was made ready and left at midnight last night for Miami, bringing the bodies of Wilson and Reilley. The tug arrived here at 10 o'clock this morning, the corpses being removed at once to the undertaking establishment of H. M. King, where a post mortem examination will be made by Drs. Jackson and Skaggs.

Both of deceased were from New York, and had been in the employ of the railroad company at Long Key for some time. The authorities will give the cause of their death a thorough probing, and if death was due to poison or drugged liquor the four prisoners will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

At the conclusion of the post mortem examination the physicians announced death due to acute alcoholism, and so gave certificates. This does not relieve the possibility that the liquor the men drank contained wood alcohol or other poisonous substances, and a further investigation will be made by analyzing the liquor if samples can be obtained.

The disposition of the bodies has not yet been determined, though it is probable they will be interred here.

S. S. S. HEALS OLD SORES

An old sore or ulcer is only a symptom, an outlet for the impurities and poisons [illegible] in the blood, and as long as this vital fluid remains in this impure, contaminated state the place will never heal. The application of salves, washes, powders, etc., may cause the spot to scab over, but a fresh outpouring of diseased matter from the blood starts it again, and thus it goes on, gradually growing worse and slowly affecting the entire health of the sufferer. There are many ways in which the blood becomes contaminated and poisoned. A long spell of sickness breeds disease germs in the system, the failure of the eliminative members to remove the refuse and waste matter of the body, the excessive use of mineral medicines in certain diseases, all infect the blood with morbid matter and germs which sooner or later is manifested by a sore that refuses to heal. Persons with inherited blood taint are very apt to be afflicted with sores and ulcers. The taint may lie dormant during young, vigorous life, but when middle age is reached or passed, and the natural energies begin to grow weaker, the tissues in some weak point break down and a chronic sore is formed and kept open by the constant drainage of impure matter from the blood. If the cause is not removed the sore will continue to grow worse by eating deeper into the flesh, festering, discharging, and slowly undermining the constitution. S. S. S. heals all sores by going down to the very bottom of the trouble, driving out the impurities and building up the entire circulation. When S. S. S. has removed the cause the blood becomes rich and healthy, the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, and soon the place is cured. Do not depend on external applications, which do not reach the blood, but begin the use of S. S. S. and remove the cause, and then the sore must heal. "The Queen of England is just as much as any college graduate," says a Gotham contemporary. We sincerely trust that this is a mistake.

Hon. Park Trammell acknowledges that he is seriously considering entering the race for the seat in the United States Senate now occupied by Senator Mallory.

The Jacksonville papers continually clamor for immigration to Florida. Still all who are citizens of Georgia express a desire to locate in that city when the council takes action to keep them out. Some people are hard to please.

One sweepstakes story says a New York man gave his seat in a street car to a lady, and immediately fell in a fit. Another story has it that the lady had a fit. It isn't at all improbable that they both had fits. At any rate fits seemed in order at the time.

The Democratic Executive Committee of Bradford county has called a primary election for August 13th to nominate to the Governor a suitable man for appointment as sheriff for the unexpired term of former Sheriff Hall, who committed suicide a few days since. Several candidates have already announced, and the contest promises to be as "warm" as the weather.

A "special" message to The Sun from Key West says it is rumored there that Frank Adams will make the race for Governor. It is claimed that the reason he gave for declining to enter the contest for Senator would not apply to the Governorship, as the duties of the office would require his residence in the State nearly all the time, where he would be in close touch with his business associates.

Only five years for Mayor Schmidt of San Francisco, who stole hundreds of thousands of dollars, puts him in the same class as the negro who stole a razorback hog. The dignity of Schmidt's position demanded at least twenty years.—Whitehorse (Yukon) Star. [Evidently our old contributor still has visions of the hogs he used to see grazing in the piney woods of Alachua county twenty years ago. But you should return to your old stamping ground, Elmer, and see what an improvement has been made in stock in this section. Spring Park Stock Farm, and others on a smaller scale, would be a revelation to you.]

Many have a mistaken conception of the policy of the Government in establishing national forests. It is not for the purpose of preventing the cutting of timber, but rather to encourage and foster it under Government supervision. All lands in the national forests are withdrawn from entry and put under the care of a forest ranger. The timber on them, when ready for cutting, is sold by the Government to any person who desires to purchase, but it must be cut according to Government direction. This saves the small trees, requires the proper clearing of the underbrush, a careful disposition of the slash, and guarantees the perpetuation of the forest.

FLORIDA'S DELIGHTFUL SUMMERS

A correspondent of The Titusville Star writes as follows concerning the climate in Florida during the summer months:

"Sometimes in talking with the old settlers they will tell you that the summer months are the most beautiful and pleasant of all the year. That the heat is no more oppressive in the summer months here than it usually is in the North. And then, the much enjoyable rainy season, coming as it does in June, July, August and September, at just the time of the year when it is so much needed to give new life to all vegetation.

"When our Northern friends come here, in the winter, they don't stop to think that Florida has her winter months as well as the North; that many of our trees lose their leaves; that the wild flowers are, most of them, missing. But when our rainy season commences, all nature seems to put on new life.

"The gopher holes and the little salamander mounds of yellow sand, so thickly scattered about through the woods, no longer appear to the eye, but all hidden with grasses and beautiful flowers, and everything looks so fresh and green. It is summer time, and the woods are all in bloom, and the birds make music all day.

"And the aroma from the pine trees being brought out by the warm rays of the summer sun. Oh, how healing to one who has weak lungs. Is it any wonder that the poor consumptive soon finds health in our summer months? I am no prophet nor son of a prophet, but I predict that the time is not far distant when fair Florida will be the great sanitarium of the world. I have spent two summers in Florida and a part of the third summer here, and know what it has done for me. With a grateful heart I thank my creator that there is such a place as Florida in the summer time. Through the rainy season here in Florida we have refreshing showers every day, and after a shower is over how refreshing and how lovely all nature seems. With the air purified by our thunder and lightning, one feels like a new man.

"Northern people think it must be very warm here in the summer months, but it is not. Only three times the past year has the thermometer been above 93, and then one can always find a cool place in the shade."

JEFF BROWNE FOR GOVERNOR.

The Hon. Jefferson B. Browne of Key West, former chairman of the Florida Railroad Commission, has made formal announcement of his candidacy for Governor, so The Sun is informed by a telegram received from the editor of The Key West Daily Citizen. That Mr. Browne was seriously considering entering the race many have been aware for several months, and now that he has broken the ice the partisans of the two B's—Browne and Burr—past and present chairmen of the commission, will line up on their respective sides. It is reported that the feeling existing between these two gentlemen for some time past has been none too cordial, and it is probable that the campaign, so far as they are concerned, will be a warm one.

Jeff Browne is very generally known throughout Florida, and is one of the most affable men in the State. He was president of the Senate in 1891, when such a determined effort was made to defeat Wilkinson Call for re-election to the United States Senate, and but for the fact that the friends of Senator Call had the aid of such a cool-headed and able presiding officer it is probable that he would have been relegated to private life six years earlier than he was. Mr. Browne was also a strong supporter of Senator Call in 1897, when he withdrew from the race and Senator Mallory defeated Col. Chipley.

He is well up in the school of politics and has never been defeated for an office. Col. Browne is exceedingly popular at home, as evidenced by the unanimous vote he received in Key West when he defeated H. E. Day for Railroad Commissioner, and the Island City will come near giving him the same vote for Governor.

Hell is not deep enough for the poor old fool who is your friend just like the decoy is used to bring the unwary game within range of the sportsman's fire. In the last analysis, half the world's crime is either involuntary or misunderstood so far as the apparent criminal is concerned. Beware of the fellow that knows so much about another's faults and so little about redeeming features.

MAYOR N. C. PETTIT.

The people of Waldo made no mistake in the selection of N. C. Pettit as mayor. There is not a better man among the entire citizenship of Alachua county, and there is no office in the county, or within the gift of the people of Florida for that matter, that he would not fill with credit to himself and honor to the constituency that elected him. He has always been found on the side of Christianity and morality, and has never been derelict in expressing his opinion regarding public questions. He is charitable in dealing with his fellow-men, always lending a helping hand to those in need, and assisting poor unfortunates in their efforts to redeem themselves, rather than kicking them further down hill, as many pretending Christians are wont to do. There is not one who knows N. C. Pettit that cannot truthfully say the world is better for his having came into it. During the writer's twenty-five years' acquaintance with him we have yet to hear an unkind word spoken of him.

Upon his election as mayor Mr. Pettit published the following card to the people of the town, through The Waldo News:

"By an almost unanimous vote you have decided to live in an incorporated town. You have selected seven councilmen and other officers who will be sworn to do their duty.

"In the interest of decency, comfort and health and the best religion on earth (love of fellow-men), they are going to do their duty, and do it now.

"Twenty years ago good women and men, by a singular movement, drove out the last of three saloons, and in doing so helped to strengthen weak men and encourage disheartened women.

"It belongs to you—practically a new generation—to do a greater work, and do it now. Let every true man, woman, boy or girl be now interested in the effort to cleanse, beautify and make healthy our town, once known as the healthiest in the county.

"Your officers elect are going to do their best. They ask your hearty co-operation. To this end, make clean the yards of your homes. Rake and burn. Do not bury the trash and filth. See that you drink pure water; drink it now. Not a family has suffered by using the driven-well water. This cannot be said of those who persist in using water from wells that for years have been supplied with water that has percolated through poisoned soil, made doubly so by the custom of burying human excrement. Lime has been ordered and will be sold at cost."

ETHICS AND LOYALTY.

That Albert Jennings of Pensacola numbers his friends in Florida by the thousands there is not the least doubt, and while these friends regret that he will not be a candidate for Governor they cannot help but admire the loyalty of the man who then sacrifices the ambition of a lifetime, when the goal was apparently within his reach. For our part, we have admired Albert Jennings from the time we formed his acquaintance at the Ocala convention, when he was selected delegate to the National Democratic convention at Chicago which nominated Bryan, and he can rest assured that he has elevated himself in the estimation of the people by the manly announcement concerning his anticipated candidacy for the Governorship. It has the true ring of the genuine article, of a man who would make Florida a Governor of whom every citizen of the commonwealth could be justly proud, who would reflect credit upon himself and the great State of which he was the chief magistrate, and we hope to live to see the day when his ambition will be gratified.

We take the following extract from Mr. Jennings' announcement, which appeared in The Pensacola Journal of August 1st:

"Fourteen years ago the people with whom I am now associated in business gave me the opportunity to make a new start in life. I had suffered severe financial reverses, having previously lost all the property I had in the world, and when the opportunity was presented I had nothing to offer in return but my health and a willing heart to work. These men have appealed to me within the past few weeks not to desert them now—a time when they cannot well afford to spare my services. There was a time when I needed their aid much more than they did mine, and now that the situation is, partially at least, reversed, I would be untrue both to myself and to them were I to disregard the appeal which they make. This is my only reason for not becoming a candidate. It may not be deemed sufficient by some, but thus far in my life no one has ever been able to accuse me of ingratitude, and my associates in business shall not do so now, even though it costs me the Governorship to remain loyal to them.

"From the assurances given me I am satisfied that I could be elected Governor, and those of my friends who have been made fully acquainted with the situation are of the same opinion. This does not, however, alter or lessen in any degree my obligation to the men with whom I have so long been associated in business. My friends may understand the sacrifice I am making when I say that it has been my ambition from my boyhood's earliest days to become Governor of my native State, and that in declining to become a candidate at this time I fully realize that so favorable an opportunity may never come to me again."

There is a general kick by property owners on Liberty street and Alachua avenue against the assessment for work on the culvert across Sweetwater branch. At least one property owner who has received his bill for this work is authority for the statement that he was assured the assessment per front foot on the property abutting on these streets would not exceed twenty cents, whereas he is charged with nearly thirty cents per foot. It is discriminating against property owners on Liberty street and Alachua avenue to require only those who own property from University street east to pay for this work. Persons owning property on each side of Liberty street from University street west should be required to bear their part of the expense, and not shoulder the whole burden upon a few. In fact the culvert is used so much by the general public that the cost of constructing it should be paid for by general taxation.

Hon. T. Albert Jennings of Pensacola will not be a candidate for Governor. He makes the announcement at this time in order to relieve his friends of any obligations they may feel under to him, as business interests prevent him from entering the race. Mr. Jennings is vice-president of the J. P. Williams Co., and owing to the ill health of Mr. Williams, the head of the naval stores and railroad business, the management of this business has practically fallen upon him. In his statement he says that Mr. Williams and those connected with the business assisted him at a period in his life when he was in financial distress, and now that these friends are in need of his assistance, he will not sacrifice their interests for his personal ambition, and will under no condition become a candidate for Governor.

Boquet for Senator Broome.

The Postcard Is Cheaper.

We have a right to expect wisdom of the scientific, statistical brand from the international anti-alcohol congress of celebrated physicians and learned scientists now congregated in Stockholm, Sweden. But doctors are as prone to disagree over the effects of alcohol on the human system as any layman who never pried into the secrets of nature by assisting in cutting up a cadaver. "When doctors disagree who shall decide," applies as much to doctors of medicine as to doctors of law or doctors of divinity. In matters of science majorities do not rule, the dicta of ten thousand scientists, if false, is only ten thousand times as false as the dictum of one. The very fact that such a congress has been called, however, is a further instance of the wave of prohibition sentiment that is sweeping over Europe and America.—Times-Union.

Now that the prosecuting witness gets fifty dollars where persons are convicted of the illicit sale of whiskey, the "blind tiger" men will probably be more careful as to whom they sell the damnable stuff they have been dispensing. Fifty dollars will prove a great temptation to that class who patronize these dens of iniquity to "peach."

COTTON GROWERS MET IN HIGH SPRINGS

Fully Eight Hundred People Were Gathered in That Town.

MANY SPEECHES WERE MADE

Secretary Schell of the State Organization Made a Fine and Practical Talk, Advocating a Stronger and Richer Association.

High Springs, Aug. 3.—The 1st was a great day in the annals of High Springs. It was the occasion of a big barbecue given by the Sea Island Cotton Growers' Association of Alachua county. Tom Price of High Springs was chairman of the affair and introduced Capt. T. H. Willard, who made the address of welcome. Capt. Willard's well chosen remarks were much appreciated. He was followed by Sim Collins of Columbia county, who made a good talk.

F. G. Schell, secretary of State organization of cotton growers, made a very fine address. He urged the importance of making the association strong, and to take stock in a million-dollar stock company to buy up all the floating cotton and hold same until it brings the minimum price named by the association.

A large crowd was present, estimated at about eight hundred people. In the afternoon there was a game of ball between High Springs and Mikesville, resulting in a score of 4 to 2 in favor of Mikesville.

MR. ROGERS' CONDITION.

He Has Gone to Atlanta, Where Operation Will be Made.

Friends of Rev. S. B. Rogers, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, will be pained to learn that he is still suffering, and that he will be taken to Atlanta in a few days, where a surgical operation will be performed.

Mr. Rogers, with his family of a wife and three or four children, left the city about three months ago, the church having given him a vacation of several months. He is regarded as one of the most loyal and faithful ministers in the State, and those who knew of his devotion to his church and his friends were glad to grant the vacation, with the hope that his health would be improved.

After leaving Gainesville Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and children proceeded to Tallahassee, where they remained for some time. Mrs. Rogers and children remained there as guests of relatives, when the husband proceeded to Georgia, where he has been endeavoring to regain his health ever since.

It is to be regretted generally that Mr. Rogers has been unable to recuperate properly in the various places he has visited in Georgia, but his friends hope that he will yet regain his health and return to Gainesville in condition to do his work well and efficiently.

Waldo Incorporated.

From Friday's Daily Sun:

George Morris returned last night from Waldo. He says the meeting yesterday for incorporating the town was largely attended, and that up to the time he left there forty votes had been polled out of a total registration of 59, only one being cast against incorporation. N. C. Pettit was elected mayor without opposition, Joel Weeks was chosen marshal, D. L. Branning clerk. The seven aldermen are J. M. Boring, A. Jelly, W. D. Flayson, H. A. Williams, L. C. Deane, M. W. Hogan and W. A. McLenna.

NEWBERRY PEOPLE ARE ON THE MOVE

Many Excellent Brick Buildings Are Being Erected.

A MODERN NEW ICE FACTORY

Will be Constructed in a Short Time, and Altogether the Building in Newberry is Bound to Prove Profitable to Everyone.

The fire of a few months ago seems to have proved a great benefit to the town of Newberry, which is growing rapidly now, and which claims with a breath of egotism to be the "second best town in the county."

The business men and merchants of Newberry were not to be outdone by the recent fire. They were determined to put their shoulders together, with the result that the town is in much better condition than it ever was, and everything is in better condition from every standpoint.

The people of Newberry are not slow. While many of them lost virtually everything they had in the big fire, those who had lost everything decided the best thing to do was to start over and gain back the prestige which they had earned. They went to work with a vim, with the result that they are today in better condition than ever.

Newberry is yet to be one of the leading towns of the county, because the people will make it so.

The record of Newberry since the fire is thirteen new brick stores, with four more going up, a new ice factory, and other improvements.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME.

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—SAM H. GWIN, Concord, Ga. For sale by all druggists.

Hays in North Carolina.

Rev. Thos. P. Hay has written from Asheville, N. C., to the effect that he and his family have arrived safely arrived at that resort, and that they are having a fine time there.

Dr. Hay requests that The Sun be sent to his address at 161 Pine street, Asheville, as he says he cannot afford to do without the paper. His friends may write him at the above address. They were entertaining an idea of spending a part of their vacation at Montreat, but the atmosphere and surroundings of Asheville are so delightful that they have decided to spend the vacation there.

BLIND TIGERS AT HIGH SPRINGS

Two Arrests Thursday For Illicit Sale of Whiskey.

DETERMINED TO STOP TRAFFIC

Large Quantities of Liquor Found on Premises of J. W. Williams and L. H. Bartley, Who Are Arrested and Will Have to Answer Before Court.

Two more alleged blind tigers have come to grief at High Springs, Marshal C. C. Harwell of that town having taken into custody, on last Thursday, J. W. Williams and L. H. Bartley on the charge of selling whiskey in a dry county. It is said that Revs. J. L. Yates, E. B. Clark and J. L. Grimes were largely instrumental in uncovering the "lair" of these "tigers," and that while the actual exchange of money will not figure in the evidence, a sufficient quantity of "booze" of various brands was found on the premises to leave no doubt of what it was there for.

The people of High Springs have been cursed with the illicit sale of whiskey ever since the county was voted dry four years ago, and it is strange that the good people of the town have not exercised greater efforts to put a stop to the infernal traffic. They have at last become aroused, however, and are determined to put a stop to it, and they should have the unqualified support of every law-abiding citizen.

Sheriff Pennell has not had the support in the past that he should have had in his efforts to run down the "blind tiger" operators, but the indications are that the people have awakened to the situation and will lend him their united assistance in the future. He will see to it that the parties arrested Thursday are arraigned before the bar of the circuit court.

MAKE PARK A FAIRYLAND.

Millionaire Duke Beautifies Home for His Bride.

Somerville, N. J., Aug. 2.—In an effort to make his 2,000 acre park like a fairyland, with gushing fountains, cascades and beautiful lakes for his bride during a honeymoon, James B. Duke, president of the American Tobacco company, has pumped the Raritan river at this point nearly dry.

Mr. Duke has on his estate artificial lakes covering an area of several hundred acres, besides innumerable fountains and waterfalls. These are supplied from the Raritan river by a pumping station.

In honor of his bride, Mr. Duke ordered his fountains to be run to their fullest capacity during his honeymoon.

On Wednesday there was scarcely enough water left in the wells of the Raritan Woolen mills to keep the boilers going, where one thousand persons are employed, and operations were brought to a standstill.

To relieve the situation, Mr. Duke's manager ordered the pumping station closed down.

PREDICTED HER DEATH.

Premonition of New Jersey Woman Comes True.

Egg Harbor City, August 2.—Mrs. A. Nichols, wife of a farmer near Germania, had a premonition several weeks ago of approaching death and told her husband that she would not live until August. Tuesday, after working in the field until late, she said:

"My days and life's work is done, but before I die I will take my last bath."

Her husband paid no attention to her remarks but when he returned to the house he found her dead in bed. Physicians said that she died from natural causes.

The woman was 60 years old and had always been in good health.

CRIME IN NEW YORK

Four Night Courts Necessary Instead of One.

MAGISTRATES SO DECIDE

For One Week Between 4 and 2 O'Clock, It Is Said, the Number of Arrests Averaged Three Hundred and Seventy-One a Day.

New York, Aug. 2.—There is so much crime in New York after dark that it probably will be necessary to establish four night courts instead of one, which is to be formally opened in Jefferson Market.

The suggestion was made at a recent meeting of the board of magistrates after it had been stated that every prisoner arrested between 4 o'clock in the afternoon and 2 o'clock in the morning, in the entire forty-two precincts of Manhattan, would have to be arraigned in the one court and that in the first seven days of July, the number of arrests in those hours had made an average of 371 a day.

BANKER'S TRAGIC END.

Fatal Accident at Swimming Pool in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Aug. 2—Edmund R. Watson, president of the Northern National bank and treasurer of the Henry Hess Brewing company, of this city, met death early Thursday in the swimming pool of the Columbia club, one of the leading social organiations of the city.

Owing to the reticence of members of the club, some mystery at first surrounded the tragic end of the banker's life. This was dispelled, however, when it was given out by several members that Mr. Watson's death was accidental.

According to these members, Mr. Watson was standing on the springing board and was about to dive into the pool when he slipped and fell. His head struck the concrete coping of the pool and he sank to the bottom. The janitor was summoned, and with the aid of a long pole, Mr. Watson was taken from the water in an unconscious condition. He was hurried to a hospital, where he was pronounced dead by the physicians.

Mr. Watson was about 50 years of age.

It is estimated that the stockholders have subscribed at par for slightly more than $11,000,000 of the issue.

WILL FOLLOW GLENN.

Alabama Will Test the New Railroad Law.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 2.—Governor Comer has been in consultation with the attorneys of the state, and there is an impression that some action is contemplated with regard to the suits against the state by the railroad companies.

Several rate laws have been enjoined in the federal court, making a situation very much like that in North Carolina. As a number of them went into effect on passage and the criminal feature is in force, it is not at all unlikely that some grand jury may indict, and arrests at any time may follow. This is the way it started in North Carolina.

It is also thought that in case there is not authority enough in the laws as they now stand, the governor will call an extra session of the legislature to make them so. The laws of Alabama allow an act to be enjoin and suspended, while it may be enjoined in North Carolina only. However, the courts have held that the United States court cannot enjoin criminal action, and if there is indictment and arrests on this line it will bring out the issue at once.

There is a sentiment in the legislature to uphold the executive and he has indicted that he will call an extra session shortly, possibly about the time the criminal laws go into effect.

FIRE AT POOR FARM.

Threatened Great Destruction for a While.

Pittsburg, Aug. 2.—The fire at Marshalsea, Pittsburg's city poor farm, which broke out at 10 o'clock Wednesday night and for several hours threatened destruction to all the buildings on the grounds, was confined to the buildings used as the laundry, bake shop, inmates kitchen and chapel. These structures were nearly destroyed with a loss of $50,000.

While the fire was in progress, six of the employes who were fighting the flames, were caught under a falling wall. Samuel Means, was crushed to death and Larkin was so seriously injured that his recovery is very doubtful. The others were not seriously hurt. The fire was caused by the explosion of a water heater.

Nearly 500 prisoners were housed in the main building with the inmates of the hospital, but they were all taken to the corridors on the outside of the cells without incident.

PREDICTS CIVIL WAR

Congressman Jenkins on North Carolina Imbroglio.

STATES AGAINST THE NATION

Talk of State Authorities Resisting Federal Power by Armed Force, Will Sooner or Later End in Bloodshed," He Says.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Aug. 2.—Congressman Jenkins, chairman of the house judiciary committee, has issued a statement relative to the North Carolina railroad rate imbroglio. He said there has never been any event since the civil war that calls for so severe condemnation as the recent senseless tirade on behalf of states against the nation. He adds that it is humiliating that the matter has been compromised and that the nation has to some extent surrendered.

"The civil war was the result of such agitation and we may have earlier than we want, another civil war," he said.

"To avert such a calamity and preserve the nation, we must conform to the law, obey the law and have the law enforced according to the clear work provided in the constitution."

Governors Should Keep Cool.

Judge Jenkins points out that the supreme court of the United States is made the final judge between state and nation. Mr. Jenkins believes the executive of state should keep cool, maintain his dignity and remember we have to depend upon the judiciary of the country to save the nation.

"Ever since the civil war," he said, other states have had similar troubles and did not make fools of themselves or declare war and the questions involved were decided by the supreme court and no bad results followed.

"If all state authorities are going to usurp functions of the supreme court and judge that a federal act should be nullified, no one can tell where it will end."

Mr. Jenkins says he is opposed to lessening the power of both state and nation, and calls attention to the fact that the state has the remedy in the supreme court if the nation encroaches on its rights.

"Why should state authorities declare they will exercise every power at their command to prevent such consummation?" he asks. "This is unlawful attempt to oppose lawful force."

"This continual talk about state authorities resisting federal power by armed force will sooner or later end in bloodshed, possibly in the disruption of the union."

Supreme Court Decision Final.

In concluding, Mr. Jenkins said the supreme court of the United States is not free from error. It may differ from the decision of a greater majority of the court, but however that may be, the constitution says its decision is final, and must be regarded as the supreme law of the land and that is what must govern us.

"Better live under a wrong decision in the midst anarchy that must prevail in this country if each state authority is going to disregard the constitution of the United States and use its own power, right or wrong, in defiance of the national power, thereby weakening and absolutely disregarding this great government that has cost so many generations so much to make and preserve it."

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Aug. 1.—Lucius Yarbrough, of Lewisburg, Tenn., was found dead in bed Wednesday morning in his rooms over Lampkin & Co.'s office. Mr. Yarbrough left the street at 8 o'clock and said he would go to his room, as he had a chill. The doctor pronounced it indigestive chill. Mr. Yarbrough's remains were shipped to Lewisburg, Tenn., for burial. He leaves a wife and family to mourn his loss.

OAK HALLS WIN FROM PALATKA

Gainesville Has a Winning Team Again and Fans Are Happy.

THE OAK HALLS 3, PALATKA 1

Sheats Was Pitching for the Oak Halls and Had the Palatka Team at His Mercy—Team Will Be Still Further Strengthened.

From Friday's Daily Sun:

Once again the justly celebrated Oak Hall base ball team that has done so much to advertise the city of Gainesville in the past as well as furnished amusement for the people during the summer months, are playing winning ball.

Palatka went down in defeat before the great pitching of Sheats in a swiftly contested game of 3 to 1.

This sounds like the good old days of several summers ago, when every team that ever opposed the Oak Halls went down in defeat.

Dr. G. B. Tison, who is managing the team, has collected and got into line a good crowd of ball players, who are going to practice regularly and will furnish a good class of ball.

It takes money to run a ball team, so when the boys come home let everybody attend the games and show the boys that we are with them.

"TOUCHED" THE PROFESSORS.

Several Western College Men Victimized by Suave Strangers.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—The faculty of the University of Minnesota constitute a new field recently invaded by confidence men and found extremely productive of gain. Two suave, educated and well dressed men have toured the east and the middle west and are said to have duped several professors by securing loans and getting checks cashed. They have posed as "eminent scholars," from Europe.

One of the scholars, who is described as possessing a German mustache, a small goatee, a strong German accent, calls himself August Mau. It is well known that one of the best known Latin authorities in the country, a member of the faculty of the University of Michigan, has been "touched" heavily.

This professor on his own initiative, has printed handbills giving a description of the man who poses as August Mau. He has warned nearly every college in this country and in this way he hopes to catch his man and recover his losses.

30 KILLED IN FIGHT

Lodz Scene of Violence, Disorder and Death.

A GREAT STRIKE MOVEMENT

Troops Encountered Strikers On the Streets and Opened Fire Upon Them—Business Is at a Standstill, and Grave Fears Entertained.

Lodz, Aug. 2.—This city is again the scene of a great strike movement accompanied by violence, disorder and death.

The troops have encountered the strikers in the center of the town, and some thirty men have been killed or wounded in this fight alone.

Business is at a standstill, and fears are entertained of what the day may bring forth.

The trouble came to a head Wednesday, and in spite of the aggressive stand taken by the authorities, the disorders are recommencing.

The situation is serious; it would appear to be the beginning of a big labor war, and the workmen's unions are prepared for a long struggle.

The immediate cause of the outbreak Wednesday was the course pursued by the police during the past eight days in making a large number of arrests in attempts to break up the unions.

The principal socialist leaders have been thrown into jail. The police have been so energetic in their movements against the unions that they have united the social Democrats, the Polish socialists and the Nationalist parties who, up to the present time, have been waging a merciless war, accompanied by daily murders and outrages, among themselves.

General Strike.

A general strike has been declared, and the Social Democrats and the Polish Socialists have called out 32,000 men. The Nationalists have been forced to join the committee of the Amalgamated Unions.

The committee has ordered that all business in Lodz cease.

Stores have been told to close, and the power house of the electric traction system has been shut down. The committee is enforcing its orders with armed men, and several shopkeepers who refused to shut up, have been shot.

Wednesday bands of laborers were sent out in the city to wreck street cars. This they did in a number of cases, and later they used the cars as barricades from which to stone the police.

During the calling out of the strikers one factory foreman and two storekeepers were killed and two laborers were mortally wounded. The disorder grew as the day wore on. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the military forces were mobilized, but there was no engagement with the workmen until 9 o'clock Wednesday night. At that hour the opposing forces came together in the center of the town. The fighting was serious and prolonged. The workmen fired several hundred shots from automatic pistols and did not disperse until they had been charged by cavalry. At least thirty men were killed or wounded. Ambulances at once cleared the thoroughfares of the dead bodies. Among the dead is a German subject.

The town was patrolled constantly Wednesday night by detachments of Cossacks and dragoons.

Treated at Public Expense.

London, Aug. 2.—In convention at Exeter, the British Medical association has almost unanimously supported a contention advanced by a member that sick people should be treated at public expense. In discussing the idea the points were made that the physician's work is now done under conditions involving the petty worries of fee collection, the stress of competitive commercialism and the sweating of the profession by hospitals, friendly societies and similar organizations. The increasing number of cases treated at voluntary or state-aided institutions was a phase of the movement.

New York, Aug. 2.—Martin W. Littleton, of Brooklyn, has been selected by Harry K. Thaw to conduct Thaw's next trial on a charge of killing Stanford White.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

Disfranchisement Bill Has Been Passed by the Senate.

Atlanta, Aug. 2.—On Wednesday morning the senate passed the Felder-Williams disfranchisement bill by a vote of 37 to 6. This being more than a two-thirds vote, required to amend the constitution, the bill will be sent to the house, and when passed by them will be submitted to the people for their ratification.

The Joe Hill Hall anti-pass bill came up for consideration in the house during the full session of that body, but was temporarily tabled pending the printing of it for distribution among the members and was made the special continuous order for Tuesday, Aug. 6, immediately after the confirmation of the journal.

Bills to the number of 671 have been introduced in the house thus far, and the end is not yet in sight. Some of these will never come up for passage in their regular order, unless there should be called an extra session of the general assembly.

No More Sunday Fishing.

Among the more important bills passed, and there were only a few acted upon, was that of Mr. White, of Screven, which makes fishing on the Sabbath day in Georgia punishable as for a misdemeanor. This bill will be fought in the senate by the seacoast counties of Georgia.

An important meeting of the general judiciary committee was held at which time the Overstreet-Borne which time the Overstreet-Borne ator Williford, relative to the time of telegraph operators to remain on duty, and the Borne bill relative to the liability of employees, were discussed.

The bill by Mr. Alexander of DeKalb, to the effect that the purpose and policy of the state be to extend the Western and Atlantic railroad to the sea, and to operate the same, and the companion bill by Mr. Alexander authorizing an issue of bonds by the state for the extension of the Western and Atlantic railroad, were ordered returned to the house with the recommendation that they do pass, by the Western and Atlantic committee of the house.
